

1. Write your story with many different options!

2. Then ask someone to read it and they can choose which option to follow. Each option will tell them a different story!

Story Writing: Choose your own Adventure

Title:

Introduce a character:

Write about a decision they had to make:

Write about a different decision they had to make:

What happened because they made this decision?

What else could have happened because they made this decision?

What happened because they made this decision?

What else could have happened because they made this decision?

Jesus is inviting you to come follow Him. Together you can have the best adventures!! I wonder where you will go?

Follow the Leader

1. Grab a member of your family, or even everyone in your family!
2. Think of an obstacle course or path that you could get them to follow throughout your house, you could even take them around your neighbourhood (make sure to ask you parents first!)
3. Take it in turns being the leader, and getting your family to follow you
